Find Innovation at its Best at the International Home + Housewares Show

IT'S SM*art*

The latest products from 2,200 suppliers assembled from around the world will make their debut at the 2019 International Home + Housewares Show to be held March 2-5 in Chicago at McCormick Place. The Show is the largest housewares-only event in the world with nearly 60,000 homegoods professionals on hand to explore thousands of innovative new products.

The Show is owned and operated by the not-for-profit International Housewares Association and represents professionals from over 130 countries. Buyers from all retail channels visit Chicago to spot future best sellers and source products that will make their businesses successful in 2019 and beyond.

Opening at 10 a.m. on Saturday and concluding at 3 p.m. on Tuesday, the Show gives buyers nearly four full days to conduct in-depth strategic meetings and seek out new supplier partners. The Power Hour on Saturday, Sunday and Monday allows you to extend your meetings an additional hour after the 5:30 p.m. close.

Begin your Show early on Saturday with two events from 8 – 10 a.m. for buyers and news media only. The New Exhibitor Preview offers a peek at 90 first-time exhibitors from all Show categories.

The Trending Today Preview focuses on the specialty beverage movement, featuring up to 60 exhibitors highlighting the various types of craft beverage trends, including coffee, beer, cocktails, tea and water, along with specialty glassware and accessories, craft beer & cocktail kits and more.

Note the Early Dates:
March 2-5

The Show is divided into five product expos:

Discover Design Expo

Innovative, design-oriented companies and brands in all Show categories

Dine + Décor Expo

Cook + bakeware, specialty products, tabletop, kitchen essentials + accents and home décor

Clean + Contain Expo

Bath + shower accessories, cleaning + hardware, home organization, clothing care, luggage, pet supplies and inventors corner

Wired + Well Expo

Floor + carpet care, household electrics, kitchen electrics, home environment (air/water), home healthcare, personal care and specialty coffee

See the Future in the Hall of Global Innovation

Want to know what colors Pantone says will drive the homegoods business in 2020? Which global retailers are leading the way? What are the Show's most innovative products? How do today's design students envision our future?

All these answers are found in four special exhibits and in the expanded IHA Smart Home Pavilion in the Hall of Global Innovation located in the Level 3 Lobby of the Lakeside Center. While you are there, visit the Innovation Theater in Room E350 to learn what experts have to share regarding the smart home, digital commerce and omni-channel marketing and consumer lifestyle trends.

IHA Smart Home Pavilion

As housewares increasingly evolves into the realm of the smart home, innovations from established and start-up companies are making connected and smart products an expanding part of our lives. The Show will spotlight these innovative housewares products from new and current exhibitors in the IHA Smart Home Pavilion in the Hall of Global Innovation.

Throughout the Show, find exhibitors with smart and connected products identified by special signage in their booths and also listed in the Smart Home catalog.

Get Trend and Color Education

Learn the latest trends in color and consumer behavior during seminars by the Show's leading experts. Explore the color trends for 2020 and their impact on housewares in two programs by color specialist Lee Eiseman. Tom Mirabile, the Show's trend expert, will discuss the top trends for 2019 at work in the consumer marketplace and how they will change your business. The Sunday keynotes offer a panel of grocery retailers discussing new forces driving consumption and how retailers and suppliers can gain consumer loyalty, and Euromonitor explaining how hyper-connectivity impacts consumer behavior and digital disruption is transforming housewares retailing across the globe.

Discover Design Expo:

See the World's Finest Design and Trend Leaders

Discover Design, the premier design destination at the Show, features the world's finest design and trend leaders offering unique products and collections from all Show categories.

The Show continues its commitment to develop design innovation with the incubator program Design Debut. This program allows new exhibitors whose product demonstrates high design and innovation to experience the International Home + Housewares

Show in a special destination within the Discover Design Expo. Stroll the aisles to see what these new-to-the-Show exhibitors have to offer in product design and discover trend-setting innovation for your retail store.

Adjacent to Discover Design, the Aisle of Style serves as the bridge between design-focused market leaders from Clean + Contain and Discover Design. Make Discover Design your first stop to view all of the innovation in this juried destination at the Show.

Pantone ColorWatch

The housewares industry knows the importance of color. Research indicates that product color evokes a strong emotional response from consumers and is a key factor in more than 60 percent of purchases. Pantone ColorWatch is a special exhibit designed by Pantone, Inc. and focuses on the palettes representing the strongest home furnishings color trends for 2020. Each story includes the individual Pantone colors, philosophy behind the color palettes and selected exhibitor products illustrating each palette. The display also complements Monday's color trends seminar by Leatrice (Lee) Eiseman.

2019 IHA Student Design Competition

Celebrating its 26th year, the Student Design Competition, sponsored by the International Housewares Association, is recognized by the design profession for its contribution to education. This rigorous competition is judged by designers, educators and managers at housewares companies who select the winning projects from an international field of submissions.

The winners demonstrate their concepts for current or future housewares products in the exhibit in Lakeside Center. Meet the future leaders of our industry—get inspired by their energy and vision!

IHA Smart HOME Pavilion

No longer just a dream, housewares is increasingly evolving into the realm of the smart home. From light bulbs to coffee brewers, from thermostats to ovens, connected products are a part of our daily lives. Smart products, too, are making an impact – from Alexa to Siri, from vacuuming robots to trash cans – intelligent sensors are changing the way we interact and live.

IHA Smart Home Pavilion

The IHA Smart Home pavilion expands in 2019 with more than 30 exhibitors of smart home brands and connected products presenting the future of housewares. The pavilion also features a display by b8ta, a retail store and platform that helps bring innovative, smart and highly designed products to market in a new retail-as-a-service model. b8ta will provide attendees with the newest ideas in smart-related products for the home, housewares and more. Be sure to pick up the 2019 Smart Home Catalog, which spotlights smart home exhibitors and programs throughout the Show.

Chicago: Be Inspired by Innovative Retailers

"Experience the Best Retail Benchmarking and Comparative Shopping the World has to Offer!"

Chicago is at the pulse point of the strong U.S. housewares market. Retailers from around the world visit the Chicago retail scene to accelerate their knowledge of visual merchandising and store branding and to find inspiration from unique stores and retail concepts.

During your visit to Chicago, take time to visit these examples of Chicago's must-see retail stores and shops, including Whole Foods, Bloomingdale's, The Container Store, P.O.S.H., b8ta, Bed Bath & Beyond, Sur La Table, Jayson Home and Crate & Barrel.

For information about more unique concept stores and housewares retailers in Chicago and for detailed Chicago housewares retail maps, please visit www.housewares.org/show/guides

Discover Chicago!

Best restaurant city in America. Best theater in America. Best hotel city in America. The list goes on. Not only is Chicago racking up world-class accolades, but you just won't find a friendlier American city. Its truly unique mix of global attractions and local charm make Chicago second to none.

Scenic Beauty

Chicago boasts 26 miles of lakefront with 15 miles of sandy beaches, an 18-mile bike path and hundreds of beautiful parks like Millennium Park and Lincoln Park, all nestled within a skyline of architectural wonders.

The Centre of It All

Its prime location and two international airports make Chicago easily accessible. You can get to Chicago from nearly anywhere in the world at any time of day.

World-Class Attractions

Once you're here, you'll find world-class accommodations, world-renowned museums, nightlife and music for every style, theatre that's home to world-premiere shows and a dining scene that has so many accolades it's truly in a ranking of its own. In fact, Alinea has been named the number one restaurant in North America. So whether you want to try award-winning fine-dining or dig in to the famous deep-dish pizza, Chicago has something for every taste bud.
