

2024 APPROVED CHARITIES

Only IHA approved charities listed below are permitted to receive product donations. To help you select a charity, we provided information on each organizations' cause and use of donated product.

Habitat for Humanity ReStore Chicago

A home improvement thrift Store supporting Habitat Chicago by keeping home goods and appliances out of landfills, funneling much needed funds back into our community, and providing quality items at discount prices.

6040 N Pulaski Rd
Chicago, IL 60646
Phone: 773-678-1276
Contact: Chris Kennedy
Email: chris.kennedy@habitatichicago.org

Donations are sold in ReStore Chicago to the public at discounted prices and the proceeds provide funding to Habitat for humanity Chicago to help see our neighborhoods thrive.

K9's for Veterans

K9's for Veterans provides service dogs to veterans with PTSD. Dogs rescued from shelters are used as service dogs. The dog, training, food and veterinarian care are provided free to the veteran.

2312 Olde Mill Rd.
Plainfield, IL 60586
Phone: 708-990-0460
Contact: Michael Tellerino
Email: michael@k9sd.org
www.k9sforsveteransnfp.org

Donations received will be used as silent auction items, raffle prize items and will be used by veterans and families in need.

Sertoma Star Services

Our organization supports individuals with disabilities and those living with mental illness by providing services for life skills training, employment services and a wide range of mental health supports.

4343 W. 123rd Street
Alsip, IL 60803
Phone: 708-539-1551
Contact: Debra Marillo
Email: dmarillo@sertomastar.org
www.sertomastar.org

Donations provide household items to community homes and are used in day programs that support individuals with disabilities and those living with mental illness. Extras are used in our biggest fundraiser of the year.

The Salvation Army

Often referred to as "the army behind the army", this organization provides quality social services for the entire community, from young adults to the elderly.

2258 N. Clybourn
Chicago, IL 60614
Phone: 847-890-5635
Contact: Lenard Spicer
Email: lenard.spicer@usc.salvationarmy.org
