Hello International Trading Company Limited

Hello Trading is a comprehensive textile manufacturing and supply brand with 30 years of experience in textiles.

We started with kitchen textiles that are closest to daily life; every stitch and fabric has stood the test of frequent use and long-term market validation.

Our journey kicked off with kitchen textiles, the textiles that are most intertwined with daily life. Every stitch and every fabric has withstood the test of frequent use and stood firm through years of market verification.

As we've served clients across the globe for years on end, we've been consistently polishing our grasp of fabric, performance, process stability and practical design.
